

In this 25th Anniversary year of the Telegraph Hill Festival we are pleased to welcome a dozen new artists to this constantly evolving Open Studio tradition, but it also seems appropriate to start the trail at a studio which has featured from the beginning and invite you to make your way to Gill's doorstep with its inset ceramic roundels, to see the latest of her also constantly evolving artwork...

16	4 Wellington Close SE14 5LE	Saturday Sunday	11 - 6 11 - 6	Martyn Lee Smith	Visual art and carpentry workshop
From here if you continue down Dennets Road and turn right at the Barnes Wallis Centre (named after the inventor of the bouncing bomb who is also commemorated with a Lewisham Plaque on 241 New Cross Road) you can reach Queen's Road via a footpath from Swallow Close. Worthy of note is the Victorian fire station on the corner of Waller Road – a Grade II listed building.

22	20 Erlanger Rd SE14 5TG	Saturday Sunday	2 - 6 2 - 6	Angela McMahon	Sculpture and abstract oil drawings
Walking along Queen's Road from Erlanger to Pepys the buildings opposite warrant some attention. Look to your left as you come out from Erlanger at the Hatcham Liberal Club, another Grade II listed building, the fine patterned brickwork on the end wall of 375 Queen's Road, and the former derelict premises next to the Queen's Road Surgery, now restored by a community enterprise, The Field.
23	Garage at 59 Pepys Rd SE14 5SA	Sunday	2 - 6	Olga Paczka	Installation Sculpture
24	15 Ommaney Rd SE14 5NS	Saturday Sunday	12 - 6 12 - 6	Janet Currier Nicky Hodge Wayne Lucas Christine Stewart Deepa Chudasama	Pop-up Art Sale: Paintings, drawings and other beautiful art bargains

The artists listed above welcome you during the Open Studio weekend and take reasonable care for your safety, but please respect these homes and working environments and take due care of yourselves and your children.
